STUDIA LITURGICA

An International Ecumenical Quarterly for Liturgical Research and Renewal announces that Volumes 7, 2 and 7, 3 have been combined into a special issue on which includes articles by Wil Adam, Anthony Bloom, Paul M. van Buren, Charles Davis, Karl Ferdinand Müller, Raymondo Panikkar and Vilmos Vajta. These papers were originally read at the World Council of Churches' Consultation on Worship and Secularization (held at Geneva, 8-13 September 1969).

"WORSHIP AND SECULARIZATION"

Studia Liturgica has been working towards "the promotion of the ecumenical dialogue on worship, based on solid research and with the perspective of renewal and unity" since its inception in 1962. Each volume includes articles, "Notes and Comments", a section on "Liturgical Events", a bibliography on index cards, and a series of loose-leaf liturgical texts.

Studia Liturgica, edited by Rev. Wiebe Vos, appears four times yearly. U.S. $7.00 or £2-18-5 for an annual subscription.
